NETWORK RELIABILITY AND INTEROPERABILITY COUNCIL TO HOLD MEETING

The next meeting of the Network Reliability and Interoperability Council ("Council") will be held Friday, December 5, 2003, from 10:00 A.M. to 1:00 P.M. at the Federal Communications Commission, in the Commission Meeting Room at 445 12th Street, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20554.

The Council originally was established by the Federal Communications Commission to bring together leaders of the telecommunications industry and telecommunications experts from academic, consumer and other organizations to explore and recommend measures that will enhance network reliability and security.

At this sixth and last meeting of the Network Reliability and Interoperability Council VI, the Council will consider and vote on its final recommendations. The agenda is attached.

Members of the general public may attend the meeting. The Federal Communications Commission will attempt to accommodate as many people as possible. Admittance, however, will be limited to the seating available. The public may submit written comments before the meeting to Jeffery Goldthorp, the Commission's Designated Federal Officer for the Network Reliability and Interoperability Council.

For further information contact Jeffery Goldthorp, 202-418-1096 voice, 202-418-2989 TTY, or Jeffery.Goldthorp@fcc.gov. Real Audio and streaming video access to the meeting will be available through the Commission's website <http://www.fcc.gov>
